Dear Scientists,

As of January 1, 2020, your health insurance procedure will change. The insurance will be organized directly by the administration of Volcani Institute for each and every one of you, as well as the members of your families.

The health insurance and health services will be provided through Harel-Yedidim Insurance Agency, a subsidiary of Harel, based on the policy tailored for scientists at the Volcani Institute.

As long as your current health insurance is valid, there will be no changes.

This change will take place as the date for renewal of your policy or that of your family members approaches. Three months before the insurance expires, please contact us (details below) so that we can renew the insurance for you, at the right date.

The administration will cover the basic insurance fees. All other expenses such as insurance deductibles or extensions in cases of pregnancy, will be covered by you.

The following are our contact details:
